Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Thank you for your letter 1st January. I am afraid that we are as pressed for space as you are for time and it wouldn't be possible for me to commission you to write an article refuting Mr. Sparrow's views. I can only repeat my earlier invitatiin that if, reasonably promptly, you would like to write, at not too great a length, a letter for publication which would air your views on Mr Sparrow's article and on Mr. Roche's letter then I would be happy to consider it for publication.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Crook
